

Federal Grantseeking: Department of Defense (DoD)

MyTraining
Course Code:
FS0174

Tuesday, April 14, 2020 | 9:30AM-11:00AM

Webex*

This session will cover how to successfully compete for funding from the Department of Defense. By attending this course, you will:

1. Understand how to strategically seek DoD funding
2. Learn how to successfully navigate the DoD websites
3. Learn how to concisely and effectively communicate your research to mission-driven agencies
4. Learn how to search for a Broad Agency Announcement or a specific DoD program that fits your research
5. Understand how to successfully write and submit a white paper or quad chart
6. Learn how to take your research model and develop it to meet the requirements of a BAA
7. Be given guidance on how to make contact and build a working relationship with a Program Officer/ Research Topic Chief
8. Better understand the Review Process and how to apply the Evaluation Criteria to your proposal

Registration: <https://mytraining.utsa.edu/classroom>

Information: <http://research.utsa.edu/events>

Contact:

Daniel Arriaga, Program Manager, Research Support, daniel.arriaga@utsa.edu

*(Webex meeting details will be emailed 24 hours in advance.)